

Friday, April 29

Welcome & Announcements – 1:30

Beatrice Kitzinger, Princeton University, Acting Director, Program in Medieval Studies

Randall Todd Pippenger, American Academy in Rome

Introduction – 1:45-2:00

William Chester Jordan, Princeton University

1st Panel – 2:00-3:30

Moderator: William Chester Jordan, Princeton University

Veterans of the Third Crusade in the County of Champagne

Randall Todd Pippenger, Princeton University

The Form of Kinship: Patronage Networks, Place, and Architectural Design in the French Mediterranean Outremer

Heather E. Grossman, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

French, Frankish, or Cypriot? Thirteenth-Century Aristocratic Culture between Worlds

Christopher MacEvitt, Dartmouth College

Coffee Break – 3:30-4:00 (Dickinson 210)

2nd Panel – 4:00-5:30

Moderator: Anne Lester, Johns Hopkins University

Disputed Successions, Monastic Conversions and the Prestige of Good Lordship: Count Thibaud III of Blois, Chartres, Meaux and Troyes in the long 1070s

Kimberly LoPrete, National University of Ireland, Galway

Marriage Pacts and Baronial Leagues: Marrying Heiresses in Thirteenth-Century Capetian France

Charlotte Crouch, The National Archives (U.K.) [over zoom]

Partible Inheritance and Impoverished Lords in Thirteenth-Century Provence: A Murder in the Bastide of Néoules

Hollis Shaul, Independent Scholar

Reception at 6:00pm (Chancellor Green Rotunda – for conference participants)

Saturday, April 30

Breakfast – 8:00 (Dickinson 210)

3rd Panel: 9:00-10:00

Moderator: M. Cecilia Gaposchkin, Dartmouth College

The Culture of Charity in Medieval Champagne

Adam J. Davis, Denison University

Under Pressure: Experiences of Corruption and Redemptive Governance under Louis IX

Andrew J. Collings, Washington University in St. Louis

Break – 10:00-10:15 (Dickinson 210)

4th Panel: 10:15-11:15

Moderator: Theodore Evergates, McDaniel College

Lords of the Forest? Control of Natural Resources and the Custom of Gruerie in Twelfth- and Thirteenth-Century Northern France

Richard Keyser, University of Wisconsin, Madison

Power, Property, and Paris: The Case of Champagne-Navarre

Jillian M. Bjerke, McDaniel College

Break – 11:15-11:30 (Dickinson 210)

5th Panel: 11:30-12:30

Moderator: Elizabeth A. R. Brown, City University of New York

In Praise of Patina? Reflections on the Restorations at Chartres Cathedral, c. 1974-2017

Elizabeth Carson Pastan, Emory University

Take Care of His Image: Engraving, Renewal and Creation of Seal Matrices at the Court of Blois-Champagne in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Centuries

Arnaud Baudin, Laboratoire de Médiévisiologie Occidentale de Paris (LAMOP-UMR 8589) and Archives et Patrimoine de l'Aube

Lunch – 12:30-2:00 (Dickinson 210 – for conference participants)

6th Panel: 2:00-3:00

Moderator: Sean Field, University of Vermont

The Pestilence of Heresy

March Gregory Pegg, Washington University in St. Louis

Sex with Nuns in Medieval France

Sara McDougall, City University of New York

Coffee Break – 3:00-3:15 (Dickinson 210)

7th Panel: 3:15-4:45

Moderator: Gabrielle Spiegel, Johns Hopkins University

Eleanor of Aquitaine as Countess of Poitou

Lindy Grant, Reading University

Old Friends in Common: Countess Marie of Champagne and Countess Ermengarde of Brittany

Amy Livingstone, University of Lincoln

Authority in the Aftermath: Crusade Widows and the Practice of Power in Northern France, 1190-1252

Anne E. Lester, Johns Hopkins University

Break – 4:45-5:00 (Dickinson 210)

8th Panel: 5:00-6:00

Moderator: William Chester Jordan, Princeton University

Roundtable: Further Questioning the Capetians from Beyond the Borders

Elizabeth A. R. Brown, The City University of New York

Sean Field, University of Vermont

M. Cecilia Gaposchkin, Dartmouth College

Gabrielle M. Spiegel, Johns Hopkins University

Dinner (for conference presenters) at

7:30 PM (at MEDITERRA, 29 Hulfish Street)